

Nomadic V

WITH A CURIOUS SPIRIT, V IS ON THE ROAD TO INSPIRE COMMUNITIES AROUND THE GLOBE TO STEP INTO THEIR POWER.

When we become aware with who we really are inside, we are experiencing life to it's fullest. We become receptive to all life's offerings and from this we create a connected collective – a global community born of genuine meaning. A sort of festival of life.

Nomadic V's purpose is to invite and support souls on their journey to self discovery, to wake up and join the universal party. As V moves from place to place, this collective gains strength with new members, wisdom from the stories of others, and total joy in the rediscovery of self.

With no real beginning or end, the collective continues down the road, calling out for others to join, to wake up to their true selves, and to celebrate life with love and barefoot abandon.

Next Steps

I will send you a link to a Google Drive file to download all the materials you need to make our event a total hit. I've created a few things to get you started:

- Facebook event header image. Could double for your MailChimp newsletter as well!
- 8.5" x 11" poster file that can be printed from anywhere! Just fill in the missing details at the bottom
- 11" x 17" poster file, which you could take to your favorite printer, like Kinkos or Staples.
- Fonts, branding guide, the Nomadic V logo, my branding logo, and a matching bio photo should you decide to promote the event through your website!
